Lithium Australia joins recycler Envirostream

HIGHLIGHTS

- Lithium Australia's initial equity in Envirostream Australia now issued
- Lithium Australia MD Adrian Griffin appointed to Envirostream Australia board

Confirmation of completion of Tranche 1

Further to the ASX announcement dated 4 April 2019, Lithium Australia NL (ASX: LIT) confirms that the items listed as tranche 1 have now been completed. Envirostream Australia Pty Ltd has issued shares to Lithium Australia and Adrian Griffin has been appointed as director of that company.

Statement from Adrian Griffin

"We are pleased to partner with Envirostream Australia, the country's leader in recycling lithium-ion batteries. The alliance strengthens our resolve to create a 'circular' economy by recovering metals from spent batteries, then rebirthing the battery components using our ground-breaking, patented cathode-powder production technology through VSPC LTD.

"Recovering and adding value to battery waste material is a great step forward for the environment, a positive move for Australia's strategic minerals strategy and a great opportunity for Lithium Australia and its shareholders."

About Lithium Australia NL

Lithium Australia aspires to 'close the loop' on the energy-metal cycle in an ethical and sustainable manner. To that end, it has amassed a portfolio of projects and alliances and developed innovative extraction processes to convert all lithium silicates (including mine waste) to lithium chemicals. From these chemicals, the Company plans to produce advanced components for the lithium-ion battery industry. The final step for Lithium Australia involves the recycling of spent batteries and e-waste. By uniting resources and the best available technology, the Company aims to establish a vertically integrated lithium processing business.
